

A four-day voyage of smooth Setouchi sailing

NEW

Guntû on the Seto Inland Sea

This unique voyage embodies guntû’s signature travel style known as “Setouchi roaming.” Beyond the Onomichi Strait await the winding waterways of the Geiyo Islands, where inter-locking islands form a breathtaking seascape. After anchoring in the quiet darkness of the Kasaoka Islands, this slow-paced route continues through a shifting scenic backdrop. Sailing eastward, guntû passes under the Great Seto Bridge and along the coast of Shodoshima as far as Hinase. The seasons of summer and autumn in the Inland Sea are fully palpable aboard the ship. This four-day voyage distills the essence of guntû into an unhurried journey that can be enjoyed entirely as you wish.
