

A four-day voyage to drift leisurely across central Setouchi NEW

Seasons shifting on the Seto Inland Sea

This drifting route explores the waters at the very heart of the Seto Inland Sea, sailing among the sleek bridges that link the Geiyo Islands, through the open waters of Hiuchinada, and under the majestic Great Seto Bridge. This region is notable for the diversity of its cultural heritage. Off-ship activities are chosen for the season, such as visits to artisans who carry on the craftsmanship of local festivals and traditions, and walks through historical townscapes. This leisurely voyage across the sea lets you savor the varied beauty of Setouchi in a single itinerary.
