

A three-day voyage to explore stunning straits and admire antique Setouchi NEW

Departing from Onomichi, this voyage explores western Setouchi in search of the region's distinctive scenery of stunning islands and coastline blended together with the human landscape of fishing ports, temples and shrines. In the Kutsuna Islands, said to be the most beautiful in the Inland Sea, as well as the twisting waterways around the Geiyo Islands, guntu will navigate through the narrow straits known as “seto” that gave the sea its name. This luxurious route brings you close to islands’ faith and history, visiting islands dedicated to gods, and sailing slowly among beautiful seascapes of islands that reflect local life and Setouchi’s unique geography.
