

A four-day voyage to watch radiant fireworks on midsummer Setouchi nights

Departing August 8, 2025 (3 nights 4 days)

On this route, guests can appreciate fireworks over the wide-open waters of Setouchi from the cool comfort and peaceful distance of the ship. Amid the soft night breeze, enjoy the fireworks grand finale of a festival dating back more than 450 years. Off-ship activities include traditional cultural experiences on Shikoku, as well as a visit to the Ichiya-an, the last abode of the 16th century haiku poet Yamazaki Sokan. Soak in the festive summer excitement and enthusiasm as it dissipates into the night sky.
