

A four-day voyage to encounter quietly enduring festival traditions

Departing May 2, 2027 (3 nights)

Small island communities across Setouchi have quietly yet steadfastly passed down their festival cultures as part of everyday life. This route focuses on simple, unassuming festivals that have been carried on traditions in Setouchi, offering glimpses into many local forms of prayer. Appreciate a kabuki performance in a rural village on Shodoshima, and watch as mikoshi portable shrines race across Manabeshima and continue by boat across the water. This warmhearted route is a chance to softly touch the prayers and hearts of local people, and discover the artisanship that sustains festival culture.
