

A four-day voyage to enjoy Setouchi art island-hopping

Art route (3 nights 4 days) : anchor offshore at Tamano, Tamano and Takuma Bay

Naoshima was once known as a desolate island whose trees were killed by the gases emitted from its copper refinery. Since 1985, the island has been reimagined as a cultural village where nature, history, and contemporary art intersect. The opening of art museums including the Benesse House in 1992, the Art House Project in 1998, and the Chichu Art Museum in 2004 have transformed the islands into an international art destination.

This voyage devotes two days to visiting world-famous art islands. After departing Bella Vista Marina, pass beneath the Great Seto Bridge at night before anchoring off Tamano in Okayama Prefecture. On the second and third days, hop between art islands such as Naoshima and Teshima using guntō's speedboats. Appreciate art at sites including the Chichu Art Museum, Art House Project on Naoshima, the Teshima Art Museum, the Inujima Seirenscho Art Museum and Inujima Art House Project on Inujima.
