

A three-day voyage to enjoy scenery while swaying on the sea

From Onomichi, this route traces a wide arc between Omishima to the west and the Shiwaku Islands to the east. On the first day, guntū sails through the scenic beauty of the Geiyo Islands' narrow channels, before continuing slowly eastward through the grandeur of the central Inland Sea to an anchorage off Kagawa. Off-ship activities include visits to stunning and distinctive scenery such as Chichibugahama Beach, where the calm sea looks like a mirror, and 352-meter Mt. Shiunde on the Shonai Peninsula, as well as industrial heritage integrated into the life of small islands. From on and off the ship, enjoy scenery that changes from day to day and with the seasons and weather.
