

A three-day voyage to explore stunning straits and admire antique Setouchi

Miyajima

After departing from Onomichi, this voyage traces a route through the charms of western Setouchi, from scenery of beautiful islands and coastline, to timeless human landscapes of fishing villages, shrines and temples. After passing through the Kutsuna Islands, sometimes called the most beautiful chain in the Seto Inland Sea, guntū navigates the challenging waters around the Geiyo Islands, transiting numerous seto, the narrow straits that gave the Inland Sea its name. Encounter faith and history on a journey through the dynamic seascape to islands that are home to both deities and everyday life.
